

PROSPECT NEW ORLEANS

Founded in 2008 by Dan Cameron, Prospect New Orleans is the largest biennial of international contemporary art in the United States.

Conceived in the tradition of the great international biennials, such as the Venice Biennale and the Bienal de Sao Paulo, Prospect New Orleans showcases new artistic practices from around the world in a setting that is both historic and culturally unique.

By generating tourism and bringing international attention to New Orleans' vibrant visual arts community, Prospect New Orleans contributes significantly to the city's revitalization.

Prospect New Orleans is made possible by the support of Founding Benefactor Toby Devan Lewis.

Additional funding is provided by:

- Lambent Foundation Fund of the Tides Foundation
- The Prospectors Club

J. Fiber

J. Fiber is the moniker for the work of husband/wife team James Esber and Jane Fine who, after ten years of working together, have developed complimentary aesthetics that builds a true collaborative work. The two artists often challenge each other playfully and seemingly effortlessly, producing an intriguing and thoughtful dialogue.

This exhibition is being presented in conjunction with their residency at the Central City Artist Project in Central City.
